

Milligan Lawless is seeking a Transactional Associate to work with its corporate, real estate and healthcare groups on a wide range of commercial, real estate, corporate and healthcare transactions. The position will be full-time and will include all facets of corporate and transactional matters, including mergers and acquisitions and real estate transactions.

Job Summary

The attorney must have strong academic credentials, exceptional writing, and research skills, be organized and detail-oriented, and have excellent communication and interpersonal skills. We seek an ambitious candidate who wants to grow with the Firm. The role will include:

Essential Functions

- Advising clients on a wide range of corporate, real estate mergers and acquisitions and finance matters
- Drafting, negotiating corporate and mergers and acquisitions contracts and schedules, as well as equity and debt documentation
- Managing real estate transactions, including purchases, sales, and leases
- Conducting due diligence, draft agreements, and negotiating terms for various transactions
- Managing client relationships and collaborating with clients to understand their needs and provide tailored legal solutions
- Advising clients on legal and regulatory matters related to business operations and transactions
- Researching and analyzing complex legal issues
- Analyzing and summarizing complicated legal documents
- Research and writing, drafting and negotiation of contracts, and working on merger and acquisition matters
- Staying updated on relevant laws and regulations to ensure compliance and best practices.

Minimum Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree and Juris Doctor degree from an ABA accredited law school
- 3+ years' transactional corporate experience
- Admission or eligibility for admission to the Arizona State Bar
- Education or experience in health law is a plus

Skills, Knowledge and Abilities

- Exceptional writing, research, communication, organizational, and analytical skills
- Ability to perform duties and responsibilities promptly and with little direct supervision in planning and organizing workload
- Demonstrated commitment to practice in the corporate and transactions area
- Must be able to meet deadlines under pressure
- Ability to multi-task with frequent interruptions
- Must be able to work independently as well as work as part of a team
- Ability to judge appropriate action in response to changes, circumstances, or problems.
- Have solid research and superior writing skills, a strong work ethic, and the ability to work in a fast-paced, high-volume practice that is a deadline-driven environment
- Self-motivated and driven, with a strong work ethic and sound judgment

Compensation will be competitive and commensurate with experience.

Please submit a cover letter and resume to: Cynthia@MilliganLawless.com.

Milligan Lawless, P.C., is a Phoenix, Arizona, law firm. Our team is a collaborative group of professionals focused on building relationships with every client, allowing us to provide legal counsel that best suits the client's needs.